

Winkelman Book Exchange

When: Wednesday, February 17, 2010
at "Family Literacy Night"

Where : Winkelman Commons

Time: 7:00-8:30

How it works

Students bring in gently used books to the classroom by February 10. The classroom teacher will give them a certificate indicating the amount of books they have brought in. For example:

If the student brings in 4 books, they get to choose 4 books at the "Book Exchange" on February 17. The students then bring their certificate to the "Book Exchange" and pick out their books.
